Due to the physical nature of the work we do at the Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc., candidate interviews are comprised of both a verbal and a hands-on component. Both portions are required for the interview process to be completed. Activities that you may be asked to perform include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lift children weighing up to 50 pounds. • Physically block a child in the event they are attempting to hurt themselves or run off. • Engage in rigorous activities such as jumping, running, pushing/pulling children in swings and/or wagons, moving between activities quickly which often requires getting up and down from the floor repetitively, and climbing up/down stairs. • Run and sustain behavioral procedures that may require physically blocking a child for an unspecified amount of time. • Quickly react to actions a child may engage in that could jeopardize their safety.
Please describe any reason why you may not be able to fully perform these duties and/or complete the interview process:

APPLICANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT & AUTHORIZATION

I CERTIFY THAT ALL ANSWERS GIVEN BY ME ARE TRUE, ACCURATE AND COMPLETE; I UNDERSTAND THAT THE FALSIFICATION, MISREPRESENTATION OR OMISSION OF FACT ON THIS APPLICATION (OR ANY OTHER ACCOMPANYING OR REQUIRED DOCUMENTS) WILL BE CAUSE FOR DENIAL OF EMPLOYMENT OR IMMEDIATE TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT, REGARDLESS OF WHEN OR HOW DISCOVERED.

This application shall be considered active for no longer than six months. After that time, applicants will be required to resubmit a completed application. The application will be given every consideration, but its receipt does not imply that the applicant will be employed. The applicant understands that neither this document nor any offer of employment from this employer constitutes an employment contract unless the employer and employee execute a specific document in writing.

I understand that The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc. will check the references provided in this application, including my former employers, supervisors and schools. I authorize these individuals, companies and institutions to furnish The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc. with any information they have about me, and I release and hold them and The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc. harmless from any liability or damage whatsoever with respect to the release or use of this information.

Dependent upon state requirements, I understand I will be required to submit other background related information so that various background checks can be conducted, including, but not limited to: criminal history, finger-print clearance, proof of licensure, etc. I understand that if I receive an offer of employment, I will be required to submit to a pre-employment drug test. Additionally, I may be required to submit to a post-accident, reasonable cause or random drug test, as a condition of employment in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. I authorize The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc. to have access to this information.

I will also be asked to produce documents proving my identity and right to work in the United States. I attest that all information disclosed on this application is true and accurate without omissions of any kind. I understand that any misrepresentation, deception, or false statement made in this Employment Application may result in my not being considered for employment, and if not discovered by the Agency until after my becoming employed, is grounds for, and may result in, my immediate termination.

If I am hired by The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc., I agree to comply with all company policies, procedures, and management directives. I acknowledge and understand that my employment with The Quad Cities Autism Center, Inc. is "at-will" and can be terminated by me or the agency at any time and that no one has the authority to make exceptions to this "at-will" rule except in a written agreement signed by the director of the center.
